TEA SELECTION

English Breakfast

Created with a blend of the best quality black teas from the highlands of East Africa and Ceylon, English breakfast is the most popular of the "Specialty Teas". A brisk, refreshing flavour, drink with or without milk.

Green Tea

An excellent digestive after a meal. This tea has a light refreshing flavour. Make with water off the boil and infuse for 2-3 minutes. Serve on its own, without milk or lemon.

Green China with Jasmine Blossom

Created from an ancient Chinese recipe, this tea is a combination of green tea leaves and jasmine flowers. Serve on its own, without milk or lemon.

Imperial Gunpowder

This is a classic green china tea made from young, whole unfermented tea leaves. The green leaves are tightly rolled into little balls said to resemble lead shot, which "explode" (unfurl) when covered with freshly boiled water in the teapot. A light coloured liquor with a slightly sharp flavour.

Lapsang Souchong

This black tea from China has a distinctive taste that is produced when it is smoked in the traditional manner, by hanging the tea in baskets over pine chips. Serve without milk.

Assam Tea

This tea comes from the rich and fertile plains of the Brahmaputra Valley in the Assam region of north east India. With a strong, malty liquor, this is a powerful black tea with a full-body and a brisk, invigorating flavour; perfect for kick-starting your day. This tea is best enjoyed with milk.

Afternoon Darjeeling

From Darjeeling in the foothills of the Himalayas. A light, golden tea with a subtle, delicate flavour likened to muscadelle grapes. A fine black tea, serve with or without milk or lemon and brew for at least five minutes.

Ceylon (Pure)

This tea comes from the very best highland tea gardens in the Dimbula region of Sri Lanka. Ceylon tea has a light, citrus-like characteristic, it also tastes delicious iced. This tea can be enjoyed at any time of the day.

China Rose

A black China tea, which is layered with rose petals during the drying process so that the tea leaves are delicately scented. This tea is pale and delicate. Best served without milk.

China Yunnan

Light, clear and golden in the cup. This black tea has a nutty, sweet aroma and taste, this is the result of the climatic conditions in which it is grown. Serve with or without milk.

Earl Grey

This is the most famous flavoured tea. The secret recipe was said to have been given to one of Earl Grey's diplomats in 1830 by a Chinese Mandarini reward for saving his life. It is a blend of fine black China teas and natural oil of bergamot. Serve with or without milk or lemon at any time of the day.

Herbal Teas

Taylor's of Harrogate organic tea bags. A clean, refreshing tasting tea. Serve on its own. Please ask for our selection.
