A Bit of History

Enjoy a gourmet experience in 'The Pullman Restaurant' at Glenlo Abbey

The Pullman Restaurant on the grounds of Glenlo Abbey Hotel is one of Ireland’s truly unique dining experiences. Comprising of two dining carriages, one of which is called Leona, dates back to 1927 and was part of the original Orient Express and carried VIP’s all over Europe and the UK during its life span.

Nineteen sixty five saw Leona’s final journey when she was used as part of Winston Churchill’s funeral cortege.

After this event, Leona with other carriages played a starring role in the classic movie, Murder on the Orient Express which featured greats such as Albert Finney, Lauren Bacall and Sean Connery.

Leona was a restaurant in Elsenham Station in Essex, not far from Stansted Airport and included the 1954 carriage Linda, which makes up the other half of dining facility of 'The Pullman Restaurant'. Opened in May 1998, the Pullman Restaurant enjoys fabulous views of Lough Corrib and ironically is only 300 meters away from the old track bed of the now lost Galway-Clifden railway line which was disbanded in the mid 1930’s.

On Board the Pullman Restaurant, the service is jovial and personal with our experienced team looking after dining guests and the enthusiastic chefs serving up Irish & modern cuisine.
